

GALAXY

International Multidisciplinary Research Journal

Vol. 3, Issue-II (March 2014)

Editor-In-Chief: Dr. Vishwanath Bite

Managing Editor: Madhuri Bite

O' Father

Farah Siddiqui
D.Phil Research Scholar
University Of Allahabad
Dept Of English & M.E.L.

No one is as Supreme as my Father
Who is uncomplicated and my creator.
My days are phenomenal under his shade
With Love and Congruity that is spread.
I feel like Saintly, purist and insouciant
I wish this moment remains eternal not transient.
O'Father, you have given me a nice name
You taught me how to struggle for fame.
You taught me respect, manner and culture
You taught me not to sabotage or hurt others.
You taught me not to be abominable or repulsive
You taught me to be a composer and a creative.
Whenever I am in rage or indignation
You are always polite and seems to be my inspiration.
You have given me a lot, how shall I return?
My performance is due to you, so how shall I shun?
I am just keep on moving, I don't know my way
O'Father you just be with me, this I want to say.

I wish to remain forever under your feet
So that no one can humiliate me or cheat

Please guide me when I am in difficulties
Please escort me when the world shows cruelties.
My Father you are very mannerly and gallant
And this is one of your best talents
You are always affable and you never lose hope
And that's a biggest gift that I'll cope
O'h God! give my father the life, health and happiness
And please give me mercy, virtues and kindness
So that my father feels proud on me
Who treats me like his friend not an enemy.
O'God! please give me a permission
So that I can make some confessions
That how much I esteemed and regard him
How much happiness and joy I wish to give him
He is the best and Godly man in my life
He is a good-spirit that shall ever survive
I promised you that I shall never go against
As he is a respectable man just like a saint
Because for me his presence is very requisite
And then only my life will become exquisite...