Irrelevant Thoughts

Shyamal Roy

Kanailal Dutta Road, Hakimpara,
Siliguri-734001

Some dears are long away,
Returns in memory!
Old days reminded with
Light and shadow shared,
Impossible irreversible,
Rituals, customs degenerating,
Precarious thoughts gushing over the Traits, Tradition and precisions.

Oh the lad of six, oh my mine
How are you?
Your curiosities, your remote memories,
Do you recall?
Looking into the depth of time,
Vision blurred by spider-nets and
Fernery ingrowths,

Oh the boy of sixteen, oh my mine
How are you?
Your emotions, your beliefs,
Inside do you hide?

Oh the youth of twenty six, oh my mine
How are you?
Your philosophy, your notion
Do you nurture?

Oh the man of thirty six oh my mine
How are you?
Your passions, purpose of life
Do you preserve?

Oh the soul of forty six oh my mine
How are you?
Your experiences, your sufferings
Do you crack? Contend?

Nay- to be very much perfect in perfection,
Dragging or jumping or rolling

Burning but not made to ashes,
Philosophy not stolen,
Sufferings have the visage of word,
Tragedies have no tragic end
Joy not always ends in a joy-
In the heart of an oyster, pearls are formed
All pains and sorrows reflect rays.
A journey of civilization though procrastinated
Never will retreat,
But will perpetuate
