I'll Rise Again

Qaisar Bashir

I'll rise again
Like a fulgent sun
Emerging from the east
To rejuvenate this maimed land: K;
And bless her with the lost grace.

I'll rise again
Like a cloud
And burst as a bomb
To perish the stalwart beagle
And his 'so called' democratic home.

I'll rise again
Like a phoenix from dead ashes
And fly higher and higher,
Not as Icarus,
To accomplish the lost glory: Independence.

I'll rise again
Like a ferocious wave
To wash him off down the abyss along,
And vomit him out
As burnt Pharaoh from Nile was.

I'll rise again
Like Jehlum – September, 2014,
Inundate him underneath,
To sanctify this sacred land
And then, flow freely in the Valley.

I'll rise again
Like a lifeless grain of seed,
Dumped beneath the soil in autumn
And shortly covered by caramel leaves,
To bloom in the spring as tulip.

I'll rise again
Like a tree, stripped bald
And etherized in winter,
To embower the burning and
Penumbra the fatigued.

I'll rise again
Like an angry lion from sleep,

I'll Rise Again

Tear this 'Beast' into pieces,
To bring back to the anarchic state
The lost peace and halo again.

I'll rise again
Like a tornado from westward seas,
Sweep away the filth that
He had spread way back decades here,
To move as morning breeze.

I'll rise again
Like lava from the earth
Burn him till he'll metamorphose
Into ashes
And disappear, never to return.
