Light

Hashmina Habeeb

Had I not known light
I'd have blissfully embraced darkness.
In the dark I found my abode,
Placed the luggage I have dragged along
Not letting go of a single piece
I have gathered in this walk.

I have known light
Out of nowhere it did shine
Bewildered I have looked
At a shadow I have never known
Yet when my heart, my confused heart
In a melancholy strain looks
At the light that lighted my way
As I hold on to what I have,
I shall never regret
Of the light that lit my day.
