Dreams

Ruchi Nagpal

A story told often,

It turns into a dream.

It grows and grows and grows,

Until It becomes a scream.

It shouts and skips and dances,

And picks a path to walk.

It nurtures itself gently,

In a beautiful world of dark.

You see, you hear, but don't speak,

You dread it's luminous way.

It enchants the soul you are hiding,

And tempts it to go astray.

It sparkles, shines and grows,

And changes life's course.

Heart wishes every moment,

What dreams on life bestow.
