I am yet to say..... before I leave!

Before I leave, before I leave I wish to get into my life again
Though, may sound awkward, but, I mean it to core heart
Want to sense prenatal sleep, feel, warmth of motherly bliss
Soothing closure, that realm of innocence, all child's treasure
Those plays & rip-roaring, cause of belly laugh to others
Wish to delve deep, before I leave, before I leave!

Wish to feel those hays days, no sorrow knew whereabouts
Life being straight with no hearty commotions and doubts
Spring sings at the door of heart & great joy spills all around
Yet to wander in the open alley as distant birds in the sky
Yet to give a new flight of joy full of hopes & aspirations
Yet to wait for a new life before I leave, before I leave!

Wish to mean those transformations rooted through this journey
Yet to perceive world, that delinquency didn't allow quite often
Yet to answers certain queries, left uncared, yet to sharpen wit
Yet to question accepted notion with logic and reason, yet to do
Yet to cut the sorrows of life with sword of knowledge, yet to Shed the gloom of ignorance, before I leave, before I leave!

Yet to analyse, root cause of pitfall in this divine journey

Yet to know big flaws, all ignored virtues & sensibilities
To know all follies committed & all extravagance enjoyed
Yet to figure those deviations, ignoring my inner selfhood
Wish to aspire a new awakening amidst all worldly vices
Yet to challenge all viciousness, before I leave, before I leave!

The canoe of faith sinks down in vicious ocean of all human ills
Heart bleeds; since pessimistic world view around, amidst gloom
The ocean of love, sanctity all drying up like flower in wither
I'm yet to restore that lost faith of humanity, once power, to the all
Yet to be with self, to unravel the mystery behind this wondrous walk
I'm to reconcile, soul & self, before I leave, before I leave!
