Our day begins at night

When darkness slowly devours the streets,

Spread its shadowy fingers over the heart,

Lulls the dark beast to wake up.

Slowly chants the mantra,

Wake up, tear the flesh, taste the fresh hot blood.

We sacrifice ourselves to them.

Young boys of sixteen, some drug addicts,

Some wants to be rich.

A single night can fulfill our dreams.

They choose us, takes us to cheap hotel rooms.

Women of my aunt's age,

Quench their thirst on me.

Then left me...naked all alone.

They treat me like a creature.

When they bite and pull my organ I cry in pain.

But nobody cares,

After all, boys love intercourse.
