My Divine Mother

Mothi Bai K S

Asst. Prof. of English,
Department of English,
Vivekananda Degree College,
Nehru Nagar
Puutur, (D. K.) Karnataka.
India.

When I started to open my eyes in wonder
I could see nothing but my mother fair
For me feeding, bathing, sleeping ,and loving Like a goddess who is blissful in tending
Me ,a tender plant to grow into a strong tree useful in giving protection to the tired in future.

Yes , I know what my mother did a rare duty
An unsurpassable beauty in refining a crude
Wood into a fascinating statue devoid
Of ugly crux , a relic for the living years.

Now I have your heart and will to nourish
My little one embellish
Your love ,sacrifice ,selfless duty.

My overwhelming salutation

To your maternal unique zeal

In propagating 'Mother is divine'.
