Winter in Kashmir

Waseem Akram
Lerow Kulgam
J&K,INDIA.

Thou art so cruel, and acts recklessly.
Makes life so unpleasant in thine presence.
Snow,frost and intense cold waves thine pleasure.
Turning breathtaking landscapes into horrible sights.
Chirping birds confined in homes.
Such are thine qualities.

Life no more visible in thine presence.
Thine forty-days period made people sad.
Whate else could be thine pleasure.
Children lost in summer's reveries.
Adults,womens,Youths praising summer.
Thine imprints can't be easily forgotten.
Such was thine reign.

This year summer so late.
He too scared of thine reign.
Thou have ruled with iron-hand.
Are thine only such pleasures.
Thou art indeed unaware of summer's reign.
Thou too could have ruled with soft hand.

O Winter!

Don't be so cruel.

Thou have indeed limited days.

Learn from summer's reign.

Thou too could have received applause.

Thou art indeed taking pleasure in breathless sights.

Why not visiting meadows in summer.

Thou art indeed have nourished melting heart.
