Living like a God

Balkaran Singh Sidhu

You have lived like a God

Calm, composed in yourself

You tailored your life perfectly

Scripted in the city of rainbows

You shine like the white lightning

To catch the monuments falling

The departure of lovers, patriots

You swarm destiny with no promises

Like a indivisible beauty

You listen carefully to the prayers

You believe in yourself,

You honor your victories

And count yourself lucky

You really live like a God

Aloof, eccentric, intrinsic

You wrap your silence in

Prayers, lordship that you possess

You whisper like wind,

Cry like the rain

You live like a God

Aren't you tired, of vigilance?

Against invaders, much anticipated

The mythology that exists inevitably.
